

Vaisseaux, nous vous aurons aimés

Text by Jean de la Ville de Mirmont (1886-1914)

Set by Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924), from L'horizon chimérique [lɔ.ri.zõ ʃi.me.rik] (The Illusory Horizon), op. 118, #4

|                   |             |             |               |              |           |             |               |
|-------------------|-------------|-------------|---------------|--------------|-----------|-------------|---------------|
| Vaisseaux, | nous | vous | aurons | aimés | en | pure | perte; |
| [vɛ.so            | nu          | vu.         | zɔ.rõ.        | ze.me.       | zã        | py.rə       | pɛr.tə]       |
| Ships,            | we          | you         | have          | loved        | to        | no          | avail;        |

|           |                |           |             |             |            |              |            |           |             |
|-----------|----------------|-----------|-------------|-------------|------------|--------------|------------|-----------|-------------|
| Le | dernier | de | vous | tous | est | parti | sur | la | mer. |
| [lə       | dɛr.nje        | də        | vu          | tu.         | sɛ         | par.ti       | syr        | la        | mɛr]        |
| the       | last           | of        | you         | all         | has        | departed     | upon       | the       | sea.        |

